

MEDIA RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 12, 2011

ISTANA PHUKET TO CELEBRATE PRESTIGIOUS PROPERTY AWARD WINS IN SHANGHAI

PHUKET, THAILAND: Prism Estates, developers of the Istana Phuket residential development in Naithon, has won three 'Asia Pacific Property Awards' in the categories: Architecture Multiple Residence, Development Multi Residence and Development Marketing. Istana Phuket will represent the whole of Asia Pacific in a major international competition supported by Bloomberg Television and Google.

Istana Phuket features 19 individually designed palatial residences by world-renowned principal of GFAB Architects Gary Fell, offering sophisticated, timeless architecture based on intelligent contemporary design, ultimate quality and environmental harmony.

The presentation of awards will be held in Shanghai on 30th and 31st May at The Longemont Hotel in Shanghai. This gala presentation dinner and two-day Property Summit event will be attended by hundreds of leading property professionals from across Asia Pacific. The region is rapidly becoming the driving force behind the world's economies meaning that companies seeking expansion are looking East for opportunities to forge new business alliances and seek investment opportunities. Hence, the Property Summit will provide the ideal scenario.

A record number of 21 different countries took part in the Asia Pacific Awards this year while new countries competing included Papua New Guinea, Tonga and Cambodia. These awards are part of the International Property Awards which was established 17 years ago and cover residential as well as commercial categories. As the world's most prestigious competition, its prime focus is to seek out the best real estate professionals across the globe.

Later this year, top scoring winners from the Asia Pacific Property Awards will compete against other winning companies from Europe, Africa, the Americas and Arabia to find the ultimate World's Best in each category. Both in 2009 and 2010, the Asia Pacific region scooped no less than seven World's Best awards. The property industry is now watching with great interest to see if this feat can be matched or possibly even beaten when the final results are revealed at London's Savoy Hotel on December 12th.

Ten Istana Phuket villas are still available for sale with prices starting at $US 4.25 Million for the 4 bedroom configuration, 6.45 Million for the 5-6 bedroom configuration and $US 8.45 Million for amazing Villa 19 with 7 bedrooms.

More information is available at www.istanaphuket.com

-END-

For media enquiries, please contact:
Mr. Duane Lennie
Tel: +66 86 948-6836 (Outside Thailand)
Tel: 086 948-6836 (Inside Thailand)
Email: duane@istanaphuket.com